A-State Office of Diversity presents

Black History Month

ARKANSAS STATE UNIVERSITY

Is Black History Month Necessary?

February 1 • 5:30-7 p.m.
Reng Student Union, Third Floor, Black River Room
Join the Black Student Association as they host an open panel discussion concerning Black History Month and tackle the question "Is Black History Month Necessary?"
Main Contributor: Black Student Association

Let's Dance and Talk South Africa

February 2 • 5:30-7 p.m.
Reng Student Union, Third Floor, Mockingbird Room
Come and hear a powerful lecture from Johannes "Jomo" Xulu about the struggles and the successes of South Africa as well as experience the powerful and spiritual nature of Zulu dance. Learn this fun and energetic style of dance intended for both men and women of all ages.
Main Contributor: Office of Diversity

The Black Dollar

February 6 • 5:30-7 p.m.
Reng Student Union, Third Floor, Spring River Room
Join Mallory Hill from Regions Bank as she discusses how to invest and save your money as well as expose dangerous spending practices and habits.
Main Contributor: Brother 2 Brother

African-American Women's Activism

February 7 • 3-5 p.m.
ASU Museum
Come hear Dr. Cherisse Jones-Branch's lecture, "African-American Women's Activism in Rural Arkansas," and stay for lively conversation and refreshments.

Strong-Turner Soul Food Dinner

February 10 • 6-8 p.m.
A-State Armory (ROTC Building)
Join the Strong-Turner Alumni Chapter of Arkansas State University as they host their Annual Soul Food Dinner set to satisfy your expectations as well as your taste buds!
Main Contributors: Office of Diversity and Strong Turner Alumni Chapter

Hip Hop Meets Politics

February 13 • 5:30-7 p.m.
Reng Student Union, Third Floor, Black River Room
Come and learn how hip hop played a vital role from 1980-2000 in politics as well as its effects on both the African American community and the country.
Main Contributor: Office of Diversity

Refugees and Racial Cleansing

February 13 • 6-8 p.m.
Reng Student Union, Third Floor, Auditorium
Come out for an informative lecture concerning ethnic and racial cleansing in Europe and the United States.
This program is made possible by the Campus Outreach Lecture Program of the United States Holocaust Museum's Jack, Joseph and Morton Mandel Center for Advanced Holocaust Studies, supported by Jack and Goldie Wolfe Miller and the Robert and Myra Kraft Family Foundation to the United States Holocaust Foundation. Also sponsored by the Office of Diversity and the Department of History.

Sexual Health in the Black Community

February 15 • 5:30 p.m.
Reng Student Union, Third Floor, Mockingbird Room
Come and listen to an informative, and interactive lecture led by Dr. Patricia Guy, Dr. Evi Taylor and Dr. Rejoice Addae concerning sexual health in the black community.
Main Contributor: Minorities in Health Care

Miss Essence Pageant

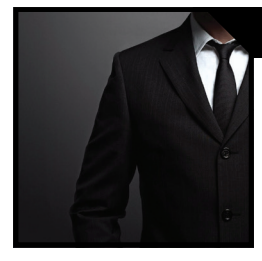
February 16 • 7 p.m.
Fowler Center
Join the Black Student Association as they host their annual Miss Essence Pageant which celebrates the accomplishments and talents of Arkansas State University's African American female students.
Main Contributors: Black Student Association, Office of Diversity

Maximizing your College Journey

February 17 • 5:30 p.m.
Reng Student Union, Third Floor, Auditorium
Come and listen to a powerful lecture led by esteemed motivational speaker Denny Johnson concerning college matriculation as a minority.
Main Contributor: Office of Diversity

Open Mic Night

February 20 • 6-8 p.m.
Reng Student Union, Third Floor, Auditorium
Come listen to Arkansas State University students express themselves through song, dance and poetry.
Main Contributor: Black Student Association



The All Black Affair

February 21 • 7-10 p.m.
Reng Student Union, Centennial Hall
Come and enjoy a fun night of dancing at the Black Student Association's formal affair.
Main Contributors: Black Student Association, Office of Diversity

Movie Night

February 24 • 6 p.m.
Humanities & Social Sciences, Auditorium 1028
Come and watch a movie. It's all on us! Movie showing: School Daze
Main Contributor: Black Student Association

AState.edu/Diversity | Arkansas State University Office of Diversity